IF ANY MAN BE IN CHRIST
HE IS A NEW CREATURE; OLD THINGS ARE PASSED AWAY;
BEHOLD, ALL THINGS
ARE BECOME NEW. II. COR. 5:17

STUMBLING BLOCKS TO JESUS..

AH... YOU AND YOUR JESUS!
IT'S JUST ANOTHER CRUTCH!!

He takes off your casts, or heavy burdens, and takes away your crutches. Jesus makes you whole. In Luke 17:19, Christ said to the Leper that he had healed of leprosy, "Arise, go thy way: thy faith has made thee whole." Since God created you, it makes sense that to come into fellowship with your creator-- your source of life and energy, is to be a complete person.

"GOD HELPS THOSE WHO HELP THEMSELVES..."

I GAVE AT THE OFFICE!

Christ didn't come to give us a bunch of do's and don'ts. In fact, all Christ asks of you is that you come to him, just as you are. He said: "Come to me and I will give you rest..." Matt. 11:28. However, Christ also said: "If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who keeps his life for himself, shall lose it, and anyone who loses his life for me shall find it again." Matt. 16:24. All Christ is saying is that when you come to him you've got to be willing to deny yourself-- give up your old lifestyle.

Nowhere in the Bible does it say: "God helps those who help themselves." That's man's philosophy. "When we were utterly helpless with no way of escape, Christ came at just the right time and died for us sinners who had no use for him. Even if we were good, we really wouldn't expect anyone to die for us, though, of course that might be barely possible. But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners." Romans 5:6,7,8

THAT'S WHAT I HATE ABOUT YOU CHRISTIANS... YOU SAY YOURS IS THE ONLY WAY-- YOU'RE SO NARROW-MINDED! (GULP!)

WRONG. We don't say our way is the only way... CHRIST DOES. Christ said it first! Take your arguments to the Man himself. Jesus said: "I am The Way, The Truth, and The Life. No man comes to the Father except by me."

"I LIVE BY THE GOLDEN RULE."
"I KEEP THE COMMANDMENTS."
"I TRY TO BE GOOD AND FAIR."
"I GAVE AT THE OFFICE."
"I GO TO CHURCH ON SUNDAYS."

These aren't enough. Going to church isn't going to get you to Heaven. Nobody can keep the Ten Commandments all the time. It's humanly impossible! That's why the Bible says: "FOR ALL HAVE SINNED AND COME SHORT OF THE GLORY OF GOD." Romans 3:23. If you're trying to get to Heaven by your own merits like "trying to be good and fair;" "Helping the needy," etc., you won't make it. God's perfect standard for getting to Heaven is Jesus Christ. How does your life measure up to HIM?

IT'S HAPPENING with jesus!

Kansas City... Huge Jesus People seminar draws capacity crowds in a two-week Bible study... cultural and denominational differences dissolve as leaders concentrate on Christ and 'charismatic renewal'

Moscow... Jewish residents in the U.S.S.R. are reported making their exodus to Israel en masse... as 600-700 leave monthly, a predicted 12,000 Jews will have left the Soviet Union by the end of 1971... (if the rate continues).....

Paradise, Pa.... Empty garment factory becomes Jesus People center as Brothers and Sisters really get it on.

Kabul, Afghanistan... Brother and Sister open Christian crash house to reach spaced out persons tangled up in drugs and Eastern mysticism... Support them in prayer that their ministry may flourish Brussels... Belgian Bible Society converts vending machines from candy to printed Gospels... Is there a better snack?...

Seattle... Linda Meissner, leader of the controversial "Children of God" cult has left her husband and five step-children to remain leader of the religious cult... her husband, John Salveson, said he gave his wife a choice between home and the Children of God, but she chose the C.O.G. ... Salveson agreed emphatically with Dave Wilkerson's declaration that the Children of God are "not the legitimate Jesus Movement"

Freeville, New York... the Scott Ross Show is coming in loud and clear to Los Angeles every Tuesday morning from 5:00 to 7:00 am, on KMET, 94.7 f.m. ... Heavy Jesus music and testimonies in stereo on KMET ???

GET YOUR ACT TOGETHER!

by: PAUL JOHNSON

Okay, so it's a New Year now. To a lot of people that's supposed to be some kind of a big deal. But is it really so cool? I mean like, just because this is 1972, is that some kind of magic? Just putting a new calendar up on the wall isn't going to solve the world's problems, so let's get hip to what's happening!

It's really weird, but have you ever wondered why people try to turn over "new leaves" at the beginning of each year? You know, the New Year's resolution trip and all that. Coming to the close of the old year forces people to realize how screwed up their lives really are. All it takes is one glance over the past twelve months and the average dude will say, "Wow, did I mess up! Better try harder next year!"

But doesn't it seem a little strange that year after year people resolve to "try harder" but nobody seems to improve a whole lot! So what's the deal, anyway? How come the good intentions in January don't ever make it past the Rose Bowl Game?

IS MAN REALLY SO COOL?

Check it out, now, because here's what's happening. We've all heard the old pitch about "man is getting better." But it doesn't take a college degree to pick up on the fact that that whole line is a bunch of flack! How many thousands of years does man need to get the point, anyway? How many "new leaves" and broken resolutions does it take to get the point across? What's happening is simply this: Man doesn't have the goods to save himself! Dig? No matter how cool man might think he is (shootin' off for the moon and doing his atomic power thing) he still doesn't have what it takes to generate unselfish love. He might think so, but take a look around. So, where is it, huh?

Sure, we hear a lot of ramble about love. It's a four-letter word you know. The trouble is that human love usually ends up being LUST and a bunch of other four-letter words as well. That's hardly what the world needs to get itself together! The truth of the matter is simply this: Man needs a source for love other than himself or else his self-generated love is gonna be just one more camouflaged ego-trip. Get the point? Let's face it. We all need some outside help if we're ever going to get our own act together.

WATCH OUT FOR THE WRONG TRIP

You really don't have to look too far in order to see how many people have already come to this conclusion! That's why astrology is such a big deal today? But it's not just astrology people are turning to, it's a lot of other esoteric things as well. But it's at this point that you better be hip to the truth or else you're in for trouble. That's right! There is a Spirit of Truth and a spirit of error. To get plugged into the wrong spirit is a super-bummer. That can really mess you up!

So how do you tell what's for real and what isn't. It's important to know or your spirit might get raped and that wouldn't be cool! So get hip brothers and sisters because here's how we run it down. Any formula, religion, prophet, or philosophy that depends on self-effort, resolutions, law-keeping, positive thinking, goal-achieving or head trips is a counterfeit self-improvement system. It won't work because it's energy source is within man and man doesn't have the magic to get his act together! Every single religion that this world has now is based on this wrong concept. It's easy to figure out why. Man has created "religions" in his own image which is selfish and self-sufficient. Is that together?

CHECK OUT THE TRUTH

Okay, so where do we go from here? Well, how about let's checking out the real truth. What we really need is not a new coat of paint on the old picture. We need a whole new picture, dig? Funny thing but there's only one spiritual teacher who ran it down that way. But it really shouldn't come as any big surprise. That's because the Man who said it, Jesus Christ, is in a class all His own, all the way around. Every other "religion" calls for a new coat of paint. Jesus is the only One who promises to give a person's life a brand new picture.

The Bible runs it down like this: It's really heavy so put your head into it. "Anybody who plugs into Jesus becomes a brand new person-- his innermost spirit gets created all over again. The old life-style gets dumped for good, and a whole new life begins!" (2 Corinthians 5:17). Are you ready for that? Jesus' solution to man's problem is not in improving the old life with a bunch of rules and formulas and resolutions. No way! Jesus' solution is in replacing the old life with a new one. Make sense? That's why He said, "Whoever holds on to his life will wipe out, but whoever is willing to let go of his life in exchange for my own, will find real life." (Matthew 10:39).

OVER 2000 ATTENDED RECENT JESUS FESTIVALS IN MINNEAPOLIS AREA. DUANE PEDERSON WILL BE RETURNING SOON P.T.L.

Liberation is being offered to you right now! Dig? Not after you fulfill five million requirements. Not after you stack up so much "karma" or good works. Not after you clean your life up first and break your bad habits. Get the point? Jesus offers liberation right now! Zap! Just like that! It's a free gift. You either take it or leave it.

What's really cool is that Jesus loves you so much it hurts. It hurt Him so bad it killed Him. But, lucky for us, He was willing to go even that far to demonstrate His love for you and me! Farout? "For God has verified His unconditional love for us by the fact that while we all were still grooving on our own ego-trips and self-sufficient life-styles, Jesus died for us." (Romans 5:8).

SUBMERSSION INTO DEATH=LIFE

So why did Jesus have to die in order to secure our liberation? Flash on to this: Jesus' death and resurrection is the very thing that provides a way out for you and me. When we invite Jesus into our lives and accept His gift of liberation, God does something to us that is really outside! He actually submerges our old spirit into the Spirit of Jesus so that the two become one. "Whoever is joined to Jesus becomes ONE SPIRIT with Him." (1 Corinthians 6:17). When that happens we Christians participate in the benefits of Jesus' death and resurrection. We're crucified with Him and we're resurrected with Him all in one shot. That's how we get rid of the old life and get a brand new one. Pretty heavy, huh? But if Jesus hadn't died on the Cross, God wouldn't have anything to identify and submerge our spirit into in order for us to be released into a resurrected new life-style. There is no liberation apart from Jesus' death and resurrection. It provides our way of release from our old ego-trips we've all been slaves to for years.

So, the point is, if you want a way-out, if you really want to start the New Year with a clean slate and a New Life, if you really want to plug into liberation that is permanent and for real, then simply respond to Jesus' invitation to come to Him and find rest and relief from trying to do it yourself. Right this very moment, Jesus Christ is standing at the door of your life and saying, "Listen! I'm standing and waiting outside of your life and I want to come in. If you'd only open the door I'll come in and unite My Spirit to yours."

IT CAN HAPPEN TO YOU.

It's just that simple! If you're hip to it, Jesus certainly is. He's already proved it on the Cross. So what more do you want than that? Just say, "Lord Jesus, I'm sick and tired of trying to make it on my own. I've tried to improve myself but I can't. I know that if any changes are going to happen in my life, you're the One who's going to have to make them. I'm willing to give over the control of my life to You for You to do anything You want to with it. I accept Your invitation to trust You for liberation. Thank You for doing what You did on the Cross so that my old life-style can be crucified with Yours. Submerge me now into Your Spirit and somehow make this whole thing work for me. If You don't do it, Jesus, it won't get done. I'm counting on You to keep Your promise."

That's all you gotta do. Just lay it on the Man and then depend on Him to do His work. But just remember this one thing. The more you depend on Him and the less you depend on yourself the more you'll experience the fullest dimension of His liberation. Got that? If you ever shift gears back to your own ego-power God's power will get quenched. That's not cool, but if it happens don't waste any time in shifting back to depending on Him again. Leaning on Jesus is where it's at! So start leaning, and keep on leaning right on up until the end. He's the only one who has the power to make this whole thing work. Put your complete trust in Him, now and forever, and He'll make sure that you really do get your act together!

I PULLED MY LOVER OUT OF BED...

ex-homosexual finds 'real love'

The fact of the matter is, I've been gay most of my life. I used to enjoy it, and Honolulu has got to be one of the greatest places for homosexuality. This city is just full of them and everyone of them is ready, willing and able.

On top of that, I had a faithful lover, a nice apartment, plenty of money to live on. My parents or anyone I really cared for were thousands of miles from here. Everything was fantastic, so I thought. How could I be happier? I couldn't until that morning of July 4, 1971. I pulled my lover out of bed so we could go, of all places, to the Hilton Hawaiian Village to get some rays. How was I to know that Bob Turnbull, Chaplain of Waikiki Beach, would be speaking at a church service on the sands? How was I to know that within the hour my paradise would turn into a living hell?

I'm glad I didn't know these things because I doubt seriously that I would ever have gone. You see, my life was just too good until that morning. I saw something in the people with Chaplain Bob that drew me like a magnet. They talked of loving everyone no matter who or what. They talked about not using people but giving freely instead, and they talked about Someone that I hadn't heard mentioned with respect in a long time, Jesus Christ. It was beautiful but through all this happiness and love I was receiving, I began to notice a distinct void in my life. I was getting to the point where I was most uncomfortable. I wanted to leave, but I couldn't move.

Bob Turnbull talked about Jesus. He said that it was because of Christ that we were set free from the law, from legalism and from bondage; that we were free to live our lives through the mercies of Christ; that all we had to do was accept Christ into our hearts as our personal Lord and Savior. This definitely wasn't the same Lord I was told about when I was a kid. The liberal ministers I listened to sure watered down the Truth about the Biblical Christ. The Christ I was hearing about today was one who would take me just as I am, a homosexual, and forgive me and love me. I was simply to give myself to Him. And, not only that, but when I died, I would spend my eternity with Him in Heaven. That really freaked me out. Did this mean that for the past 24 years I had been punishing myself and avoiding the real me for nothing? Then Bob asked us all to stick around and talk and take off our phony masks and be ourselves for a change, regardless of our ages, backgrounds, or even if we were straight or gay. That really hit me.

I knew he meant it, and it was the first time anyone straight had asked me to talk with them, accepting me completely for what I was and loving me for it.

The next thing I knew, everyone was walking towards the water, so I followed. They were going to have a baptism. A good-looking dude came up and stood right beside me, and my mind was definitely no longer on the religious ceremony going on up front. While I was busy checking this guy out, my eyes came to rest on a Bible he was carrying in his hand. Torn between shame for what I was thinking and the lust for him, I came out with one of the greatest lines in history with my voice cracking and saying, "Do you know what this is all about?" I had blown it.

Farmer Jones would have been less obvious in the big city. Whatever cool performance I was trying to put on was shot now; it was just a matter of waiting and everything would be back to normal. He looked at me, smiled for a second and said, "Sure, I know what this is all about. Would you like to know?" The next thing I knew, we were sitting under a palm tree on the beach, and forty-five minutes later, I asked Christ into my heart. Wow!

You see, I felt I couldn't change. I had tried before and failed. The guy counseling me said nobody could do anything about their hang-ups, that people have tried for centuries, but always blew it. That's why God have us His only Son, Jesus Christ, to do it for us and through us -- to bring order to our lives and take us from death to Life. All we had to do was accept Christ as Lord and Savior and give Him full control of our lives. Once we did that, we would be free from guilt and sin and be given abundant Life. I prayed to receive my Savior by saying, "Jesus, here I am, the lowest thing on the face of the earth. If you love me, please enter my heart. Here it is, Lord, for I've run it for 24 years and look where it's gotten me. Here, Lord, please take it. I can't, anymore."

You know -- HE DID. My life hasn't been the same since. I felt a change going through my body like I never felt before, and it started at my inner self and worked itself up and out. By the time it got to my mouth, I was crying like a baby. Something I hadn't done in years. By the time it was over, I can honestly say I felt like a changed person. I didn't know what it was but it was a fantastic feeling. My body felt lighter, freer, more relaxed than I can remember. It was 24 years of burdens lifted from my shoulders and I was happy. It was like living in a dream and I didn't want to wake up. The rest of that day I was like some head that had dropped too many tabs.

My roommate thought I was mad at him, and before the end of the day whatever relationship we had was over. It was beautiful. God had put me on a vacation from this world for a few short hours--and it was His proof to me of what He could and would do for me if I kept my faith in Him. I've had my highs and lows, but now, God never lets me go too low without bringing me back up. I sometimes hurt, but that's because my eyes are off Him. When my eyes are on Him, I don't hurt. Praise God for Jesus! His compassion. The Bible says to me, "Stand fast for all that is needed is in me. Rest in the hope that my perfect will be done. In my time shall I bring all things to you, I love you and all that I have is yours. Be of good cheer, and look unto me with all that you have, and in our season will your time of glory come."

Just think, all of this just for saying, "Jesus, you do it, I can't." What more perfect gift could we receive? Praise the Lord!

AN INTERVIEW WITH ROD POWELL

How did you become a Christian?

Well, I was really a student activist on campus while I was going to school about two years ago. One of the many times I was handing out a number of violent papers, trying to get the SDS really known on campus, this guy walked up to me and asked if I'd like to see a copy of an underground newspaper. I said, "O.K.," 'cause it had a great big title across it that read, "Free Love!" So I read it, and down in the corner it said, "We invite your opinion: pro, con, or otherwise." I wrote my opinion-- my pro, my con, and my otherwise.

I participated in the November 15th Moratorium, and I spoke on campus. Finally I got a call from one of these guys who was with the Paper and I was invited to his house to talk for awhile. After we talked a little bit he shared the Four Laws with me. After the last Law he asked me if I would like to pray with him. I knew it was time, because my life had just been alot of empty things-- you know, being a student radical doesn't get you into Heaven, and it certainly doesn't fulfill the needs in your life. I have found with Jesus I can do the things I really want to, and He takes care of my needs.

Did Christ change your life?

Instead of being a leader on campus, as before, I'm more of a learner. Learning more about Christ, and I don't have a really sick need to boss alot of people around. I can live-- that's the best way I can put it, just plain Live!

What was the reaction of your friends to the change in your life?

Bizarre. People who used to associate with me, and the faculty who knew my reputation didn't want any part of me. They couldn't understand what I was doing. They would say something and I'd go, "Praise the Lord, you know, far-out!"

"What happened to you, Flash?"

It took a lot of time for them to understand what was going on in me. Now we're trying to get a couple of faculty members, who are non-Christians up to conferences. The students on campus are just blossoming. It's really beautiful! We're getting more and more Christians on campus, and the really militant element on campus is diminishing and just really getting smaller.

If you had one thing that you could share with all the non-Christians reading the paper, what would that be?

I'd really want them to investigate it, logically-- look into it, find out who He (Jesus!) was, what His claims were. Was He really the person He claimed to be, or was He a lunatic? What did He do? What were His claims and how can they affect that individual's life? That's the only thing that I can think of that I'd want them to hear about. I'd challenge them to make that investigation.

RECORD REVIEW:
RALPH CARMICHAEL presents
PAUL JOHNSON AND THE SURE FOUNDATION

Jesus Music has taken some interesting turns in the last few years. Some of them have been good. Others have been a little hard for real Jesus People to swallow. But whatever the case, the opportunities have never been so exciting, musically, to communicate Jesus as they are today.

It might be hard for some people (who aren't hip to understanding the present generation's life-style) to understand, but rock music is one of the best things that has happened to music in a long, long time. The new rock has managed to crash through the phony romanticism of previous generations, and for that we Christians should be very glad. At last we can use a musical tool for communication that is realistic about life and about spiritual values. Sure, we know that Satan can use a tool to do his thing, too - he's smart enough to recognize a good device when he sees one. But that doesn't mean he's gotta monopolize a good thing. There's no reason why we need to allow him to have that kind of luxury.

So we just cut a new album. All original tunes. All Jesus tunes. And we're excited about it because we're trusting God to anoint it and use it to His glory. It's called "Paul Johnson and the Sure Foundation", on Light Records LS - 55573, and presented by Ralph Carmichael (who's no slouch!).

All the arrangements are made available for your own Jesus rock group to pick up on, published by Lexicon Music, and that's worth checking out, too. The record and arrangement booklet are available now at your closest Christian Supply Center or Record Shop, or write to:

Duane Pederson, Editor
HOLLYWOOD FREE PAPER
1680 North Vine Street
Hollywood, CA 90028

Dear Duane,

In January and February there will be BILLY GRAHAM film crusades in 14 Southern California cities. Would you let the young people know about the COUNSELOR TRAINING CLASSES which start January 2nd (some will start December 19th).

I will receive most warmly any of the "Jesus People" who know the Lord as their personal Savior and have a real desire to be trained in Christian discipleship and soul winning... in fact we need the warmth of love and honesty of heart of all these young people among us.

Duane, instruct any who want this free training to write our office, or phone, requesting registration blanks. These blanks must be back in our office in time to reply assigning them to their particular class. At this time there will be a large class in the Huntington Beach area (or classes if registration requires) which will begin January 2nd and be held in the afternoon.

Upon completion of the free COUNSELOR TRAINING CLASSES I will gladly certify as counselors all who qualify without any regard to "cultural distinctions", basing my decisions solely upon the personal relationship to Christ and the Biblical competence of the trainee. There will be some who want to take the course who don't intend to apply on the 4th session to counsel in the crusades... I'd still be glad to have them take the training also.

In bonds of His service,

Dennis F. Hunting
Counseling Director

PS Thanks Duane for your warm-hearted fellowship. This letter sounds so formal... I trust the message comes thru clear.
